I am quite pleased with the app in its current state. however, there is a one problem that has caused me pain on multiple occasions. I am not sure if this is just a me error. but the app seems to freeze up once I go past the 100 mark. When I restart the app it still works fine. but when I close the app and reopen it, the marker disappears for a second or two and then comes back and I am back at the 100 mark and I have to reopen the app to start drawing over the earlier art.
