Ratings [10.5] Dwight Oct 20, 2012 Dwight I really like this app as it does everything that I was looking for. It's a great tool for any project, not just outlines. I hope it gets updated regularly. I just sent it an email so I'll keep you updated on that. Great stuff, keep up the good work. Anoop Sanghvi Aug 30, 2012 Anoop I'm always looking for a good Outliner, and this fits the bill. I'll keep you posted when it gets updated. Teddy Aug 19, 2012 Teddy I just bought the trial version a few days ago. It is by far the best. I looked at all of them on the market, none of them do what you can do with Ovation. I use it for project management, brainstorming, project planning, etc. It is all you'll ever need. Ovation Outliner is designed as an application for the C#.NET programming language. It works in conjunction with Microsoft Internet Explorer and Microsoft Word to enable you to maintain and work on Outlines, with a particular emphasis on creating and managing Headers and Tags. Using Ovation Outliner The interface to Ovation Outliner is quite simple to use. The Ovation Outliner controls and toolbars are displayed in the left side of the window, and the Outline are displayed on the right side of the window. You can organize Outlines, add text, and even create Headers using the keyboard, and/or the mouse. The toolbar on the left includes buttons that control the organization and presentation of your Outlines. The toolbar contains commands to: Create Outlines Create Headers Save Outlines Print Outline Print Page \(or Print Scenario\) The toolbar on the right includes buttons that control the presentation of the Outlines. These buttons include: Promote and Demote Headers Promote Headers to reveal hidden Headers Collapse and Expand Headers Create Tags Add Tag to Outline Remove Tag from Outline Link to Tag Link to Web Page Link to Print Page Link to Document Link to any Outline The cursor changes to the browse button when the cursor is over the toolbar. Create an Outline The first thing you'll want to do is create an Outline. You'll also want to specify the name of your Outline and the name of the page to which it will be linked. The name of your Outline will be displayed in the title bar at the top of the window when it's created. The name of your page will appear in the text field that appears below the title bar of the window. Click on the Create button to create an Outline. You'll be taken to a window where you can change the page name. The default page name is highlighted and will be the name that is used for your page. You can change the page name and click OK to create the page. Once you've created

What's New In Ovation Outliner?

Ovation Outliner is an application that supports the collection and organization of ideas, thoughts, and tasks. An Ovation Outline is a collection of Headers. A Header can contain any number of characters and Tags. The number of Headers that can be created within an outline is only limited by the amount of memory on your computer. Headers can be promoted, demoted, collapsed, expanded, moved, deleted, gathered, and yanked. Ovation Outline's Headers can be reorganized by gathering existing headers within the outline, or creating a new outline by copying or moving Headers from an existing outline. This flexibility allows your outline to remain fluid as you work through the problem at hand. An Ovation Outline Tag is a link that can be used within an outline. Tags serve as bookmarks within an outline and links to web pages, Microsoft Word documents, presentation data, and other outlines. Ovation Outline uses Microsofts Internet Explorer to link to external documents and web pages. Any document that can be displayed in Internet Explorer, can be linked to by Ovation Outliner.
