by E DIMOCK JR Â· 1964 Â· Quoted from 3 - indicated in the text; Bengali similar English drills are not. done, both teacher and student must repeat the sentence in full. "I was a student, I was a teacher, I was a student and a teacher." This works very well for validation. "I was a student and a teacher." And finally, the phrase that is the most difficult: "I was a student and a teacher, and a teacher, and a teacher." In this case, the teacher says: "I was a student and a teacher and a teacher and a teacher."
