Millennium 2004 Milestone 3 Security Suite (SCWO6), also known as Millennium 2004, is a free software suite from Microsoft which provides services to help protect and enhance the security of Microsoft Windows-based personal computers. It contains the following components: Windows Defender Windows Firewall Windows Defender Application Guard Internet Security Windows Defender Offline Windows Malicious Software Removal Tool In January 2020, it was reported that Microsoft is withdrawing some of the features of the Windows Defender Application Guard security feature, including hardening user interface and removing Windows Defender Enhanced Mitigation Experience Toolkit (Emet) from the Windows 10 Fall Creators Update, due to it being a security vulnerability. Microsoft Edge Windows Defender Application Guard in Microsoft Edge is built to help secure Microsoft Edge and help protect users from malware by isolating and isolating running applications from each other, as well as maintaining application isolation even while the application is browsing the Internet. Windows Defender Application Guard (which is included in Windows 10 as a stand-alone feature) works in conjunction with Edge Reversal, which allows Edge to be upgraded from the internet to the store. The Windows 10 Anniversary Update also added support for Windows Defender Application Guard as well as Microsoft Edge Reversal. Windows Defender Application Guard (which is part of Windows 10) is included with Microsoft's Windows Defender antivirus suite. Edge Reversal and Windows Defender Application Guard (which is part of Windows 10) work together to enable Edge to run fully offline. Windows Defender Application Guard (which is part of Windows 10) also isolates Edge and any other browser from the Internet. The combination of Edge Reversal, Edge Security, and Edge Application Protection are designed to help prevent known exploits which use software for Windows Edge while Edge is loading downloaded files from the Windows Store. Windows Defender Application Guard in Microsoft Edge (which is part of Windows 10) works hand-in-hand with Windows Defender, Windows Defender Exploit Guard, and Windows Defender Firewall to defend against attacks against Edge. In Windows 10, Edge Reversal does not need to be enabled in Microsoft Edge to use Windows Defender Application Guard. Microsoft Edge can be updated to the Store for free. WSL Windows Subsystem for Linux (WSL) is a feature introduced with Windows 10, and allows for compatibility with the Linux operating system from within Windows 10. Windows Subsystem for Linux (WSL) allows a user to run a Linux distribution using only Windows APIs and
