Hope this helps. James White (basketball) James White (born October 14, 1994) is an American professional basketball player for the Olimpia Milano of the Italian Lega Basket Serie A (LBA). He played college basketball for the Marquette Golden Eagles. White attended Easley High School in Easley, South Carolina before playing college basketball at Marquette University. At Marquette, he received the Big East tournament Most Valuable Player award after the 2015 Big East Men's Basketball Tournament as Marquette won the title. He averaged 15.0 points per game in his senior season with the Golden Eagles. In his senior year, he was also selected as the 2015 Big East Player of the Year. White declared for the NBA draft, but later withdrew his name from the draft to return to school. High school career White played basketball at Easley High School under his father, Joe White. He was part of a 7-man class that went to the 2009 state championship as a junior. College career White attended Marquette University, and played for the Marquette Golden Eagles. In his freshman season, he played 34 games and averaged 2.2 points per game. In his sophomore year, he played 30 games and averaged 6.2 points per game. He was named Big East Defensive Player of the Week on January 30, 2014. In his junior season, he played 36 games and averaged 9.4 points per game, while setting Marquette single-season records for scoring (1,121 points), rebounding (619) and field goal percentage (59.8%). White was named Big East Player of the Week once during the season, on December 26, 2014. On March 11, 2015, White was named the Big East Player of the Year after scoring 24 points in a win against DePaul. White finished his Marquette career as the all-time leader in three point percentage. He also averaged 6.0 rebounds and 1.7 blocks per game as a senior. White was not one of the 31 players invited to the 2015 NBA Draft Combine. Professional career Oklahoma City Thunder (2015–2019) On
