(starts at around 35 min in) SpikeArts Entertainment SpikeArts Entertainment (starts at around 35 min in) I'm really glad I didn't know about this game until a couple months after it was released. I would've never imagined the story would've been so... entertaining. And I really like what they did to the character creation. I really like the fact that everything is customizable and they put in a lot of thought to the character progression system. I wonder if there's an Elden version of the orc you get by the side of the road. Can you pet him? :O It would be awesome if they could've released the OST and been able to listen to it outside of the game. Love the way they put on a song, and everything is so upbeat. There was also this cool line from the game that really touched me, in which Rein said, "People are always surprised when I mention my childhood dreams." I suppose that people are surprised because they thought that he was just a delinquent who ran away from home. But, in actual fact, he has always wanted to become an adventurer. I don't know, maybe it's not that big of a deal, but the fact that he just mentioned it off the top of his head blew my mind. The elf guy came as a surprise for me. I heard lots of people were excited about him. He's just such a... cool guy. While he looks like an elf, he has the mind of a human. I really liked his reactions and responses. Really liked the speed of the game, too. You can enter the dungeon in a blink of an eye.
