game experience where you can immerse yourself freely. However, as a desktop game, the map size of SotG is too large to be put in the browser. This prevented us from doing the game we had wanted, so we began development of the 'New Fantasy Action RPG', which we believe is a game that can be enjoyed as a browser game. We are having quite a bit of fun creating the game we've always wanted to play." From Platcom 3, published by DONGAM CORPORATION
