Recent studies on adolescence, although involving a small number of young people, demonstrate a clear diminution of the notion of 'childhood' and an increase in adult matters. The bot you probably know best as the AI in online games like Call of Duty and Counter-Strike, is recreated as a player here with a host of new features! Every time you play you will face different opponents based on their skill. (starting out with bots, moving to AIs, then human opponents) AI - Agent - What would happen if a machine took your place? (PS4 NA build with XInput based crossplay will be available soon!) In: Game mechanics - I'll add more as I gain more feedback Out: Gameplay - 10min+ the game can start with a timer running down Splitscreen - Not possible now as the coding is still in progress. Plan for future update! Control - It's currently XInput only and I'm rather bad at explaining things. Overview: We have been in early-access for a while now and we are ready to take our next step! We have added our own anti-cheat system and have replaced the long standing Unity shaders with our own custom shader for better looking graphics. We have a new variety of maps and a new bossfight mode, and a ton of new items to collect and use during the game. Here are some of the changes that have happened since the last update: Added our own anti-cheat system The last piece of the anti-cheat puzzle was put into place in the last few months. We've been able to test our custom anti-cheat system and allow players to create a "welcome to Kaboom!" portal. Once people visit the portal, they have to fill out an anti-cheat code and connect to our server. Once that is complete, we'll send them a client key to connect from that point on. Out of control - Release the energy! A new ability for you to use (Players will be able to release the boss's harnessed energy at will by pressing Z) Every day we get more and more into the game. But there's more to come. We're also looking at adding even more items to collect, more variety for the many different maps, and a more complete set of gameplay mechanics. There will always be a limit to this early-access stage and we will continue to build onto what we already have. But as we continue to build, we need your feedback to make the game we want! -6.el5 A: Some context needed. In smaller rpm generated packages it's usually possible to file a bug-report for that package and some maintainers may even fix it. If you receive an email about that (=investigation) that means your package is a bit more than a typical one. There's currently about 2,500 packages build with initial-packages=destdir in deb-src pool/ A: If it is unclear from packages.qa, a package may produce a deb-src that does not trigger initial-packages-destdir. * TODO: Try to use deb-src in initial-packages*.deb. Defect: ‘After you add ‘deb-src …’ to the template files, only ‘sudo yum buildpackage --buildonly --test --freshenepkgs’ worked for me* Trump thanks Netanyahu for U.S. recognition President Donald Trump, as thousands lined up to see him at the National Museum of African-American History and Culture in Washington on Saturday, said the recognition of Israel by the U.S. administration is “great news for all parties concerned,” according to a joint statement of Secretary of State Rex Tillerson and White House National Security Advisor Tom Price. Trump said that he “congratulated Prime Minister Bibi Netanyahu on his recent election and re-election to his historic first term in office.” “I expressed my support for the new phase of a historic U.S.-Israel relationship as I emphasized the world-wide challenge that the forces of extremism and terror pose to all nations, especially the United States and Israel,” he said. He said he emphasized “the need to overcome the challenges of Iran, Hamas, Hezbollah, and all extremist and terrorist groups that threaten Israel and the broader Middle East peace.” His statement said he asked the two leaders to “exchange views on issues of
