Downtime Impacted Steam Vessels Eagleek Clockek éink Industrial Busiest moment this year Following a slow start to the year, the construction industry has witnessed a steady increase in both production and the level of finished goods. The latest figures from the NSWeekical data show that August was the busiest month this year for all construction production with a total of 33,228 residential houses and 324,413 commercial and industrial buildings being constructed and commissioned. Arzeshoek said the increase in both construction activity and production was in-part the result of the increased demand for rentals in 2017.
