I usually had to write a character in a single day, so I had to get up at 6 am and get writing. I would use a briefcase as a table, because I could not afford a desk, and have had to use a laptop, because I could not afford an expensive Mac to write on. **How do you want your books to be read?** I want my books to be read. I love my books to be read and I think I have a knack for creating stories that others want to read. As a kid, I could not read well enough to enjoy the books I read, but I can tell stories that are interesting and have great characters. I love fantasy, and when people read my books they get excited about the people and places I create. I hope to be a great writer for a long time, and I want my work to make my readers happy. **Can you tell us about your other books?** I have about a dozen books published and I have plans to write more. **Tell us about the musical you wrote with your daughter.** We composed a song for the musical we wrote together. I brought the song to my music publisher, who asked me to write the song and the score for the musical. We were blessed to have the opportunity to make music together. **Describe the recording process and have you traveled to Nashville for the recording? ** I recorded a demo of "The Touch." The song was chosen for a competition, and the publisher listened to demos from each of the contestants. I won the contest. The publisher flew us to Nashville, and we made two albums, "_The Touch_" and "_Cups and Crows_." We each worked on our part of the song, and then the publisher spent some time talking with us about what kind of sound we want to record, so he could
