The report, "The Cost of Legal Services in New York State, 2002," contains detailed information about the costs of legal services in New York, and examines the effects of significant changes in the legal services market, including consolidation and the growing proportion of self-represented litigants. Using detailed information on the costs of legal services, the report also examines the relationship between costs and the availability of legal services. The report also provides a county-by-county breakdown of the costs of legal services, and a detailed analysis of the cost of private legal services. to train military pouches in Lulin, China.
